Dear Michelle,

Thank you for your presentation on Sexual Assault to junior/senior classes at Lyme-Old Lyme High School. Your warm and approachable demeanor created a comfortable learning environment in the classroom for students learning about a sensitive topic. Students walked away more knowledgeable about the law, dating awareness and what to do if they or a friend are sexually assaulted. Their feedback on your visit was very positive, and many students commented on the helpful tips regarding safe dating.

Your stamina in delivering your message to eight classes, while still maintaining a high level of energy and passion was remarkable. We're looking forward to seeing you again in January. Thank you for making a difference amongst our student body. Knowledge is the first line of defense for making good decisions.

Happy Holidays,

Mary Beth Schreindorfer
